ANNOUNCEMENTS

January 14, 2012

Our speaker today, Dr. Gerhard van Wyk has been a geologist and an agnostic "evolutionist", before becoming a Christian .

He has been a pastor for more than 20 years, and a professor in Theology at the University of South Africa for 25 years. He has published a large number of papers and lectured on postmodernism and theology, evangelism, pastoral care and homiletics for the past 25 years. He also presented papers on postmodernism at Andrews University, Walla Walla University, Southern Adventist University, Montemorelos University, Pacific Union College, the University of South Africa and the University of Western Cape. He has been a professor by extension of Andrews University at Helderberg College Campus. He has also addressed pastors and teachers at Conference and Union worker meetings. He is still serving as a Contract Professor and Examiner for the University of South Africa. Modesto Central extends a warm welcome.

From Tom Kessler

Thank you for the many cards, calls and delicious food you brought to me. The Christmas caroling and poinsettia were a blessing. I enjoy the times I can attend church and visit with all of you. This is a highlight of my week. Bless to my church family.
Tom Kessler
